FRIDAY, DECEMBER 17.

The senate thinks it knows its own business best, and voted down the open executive session resolution.

What congress needs the least it has in superfluous abundance—jaw. But then, this congress is not different from all other congresses.

One would suppose that the elections last fall would teach the democrats in congress a lesson on the subject of the tariff, but they do not seem to be apt scholars.

A woman at Neenah, named Aurelia Murray, has had her character measured in dollars and cents by an Oshkosh jury. She brought suit against J. N. Stone, of the Neenah Times, for libel, and the jury gave the unfortunate woman six cents.

Mr. Krupp, the gun manufacturer, has made a gun that will throw a ball weighing two tons through thirty eight inches of solid iron. This would be the gun for the spoils democrats to use against the mugwump barricade which surrounds this administration.

Even some very great men are soon forgotten when they die. The people of Indiana undertook to erect a monument to the memory of the late Vice President Hendricks, costing $50,000. Only $10,000 has been raised, and there seems to be little hope that the other $40,000 will be forthcoming very soon.

Next Sunday the new passenger station of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway, fronting the 4th ward park, in Milwaukee will be opened for business The first train leaving the new depot will be the through express for St. Paul, Minneapolis, leaving Milwaukee at 6:05 p. m. on that day. Thereafter all passenger trains of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway, Milwaukee & Northern railroad, and Wisconsin Central line, will depart from and arrive at the new station.

The report comes from Washington that Chairman Walker, of the democratic state central committee, will succeed the late politician, A. K. Delaney, as United States district attorney. With this report is coupled the statement that the postmaster general wants Mr. Walker appointed, and that General Bragg would not oppose his appointment, though he has a preference for one of the other candidates. It cannot be learned that Mr. Walker's appointment has been decided, but it is believed that the president has been impressed with the representations that his appointment would harmonize conflicting interests better than any other, and would let Mr. Delaney down easier than any other. Just how a man in double defeat—defeated for congress and loses a fat office besides—can be let down comfortably "easy," would be interesting to a great many democrats who were elected to stay at home last fall.

TOO MUCH MONEY.

The United States government is the only government under the sun that has more money than it knows what to do with, unless it expends it in extravagant appropriations. The treasury "surplus" is becoming a very perplexing question. Neither party is united as to what ought to be done to decrease that surplus. Some want a horizontal reduction of the tariff like that for which Morrison's bill provides, while others want to take the revenue from tobacco and fruit brandies.

A dispatch from Washington says there is a diversity of sentiment among the republicans, many of whom seem to think that opportunity may be presented to get rid of the duty on raw sugar and the taxes on tobacco. Some of them are inclined, too, to favor the placing of lumber on the free list. The cry for "free sugar" on both sides of the house has alarmed the Louisiana democrats, and it will be likely to drive them to the support of the Morrison bill as the lesser of two evils. Some of the friends of that measure are uneasy at the prospect that if brought before the house the chairman of the Ways and Means may lose control of it and that the result, if one be reached, will be the repeal of the taxes on tobacco and fruit spirits and the reduction or abolition of the sugar duties.

There is not much hope that congress will do anything in the line of revenue reform this winter. About all the republicans, and a considerable number of democrats, are strongly opposed to the Morrison plan of revision. The three measures that seem to be most likely to pass are the abolition of the duty on sugar, the repeal of the internal revenue tax on tobacco, and putting lumber on the free list. But still, the opening of these questions will create a war of words in the house that may possibly defeat all the measures. The session will be so short and congressional action is so sluggish that little hope is entertained that any important revenue legislation will be effected by this congress.

Sugar, by all means, should be put on the free list, but very likely congress will not see it in that light.

THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN CAPITAL AND LABOR.

Colonel Ingersoll gets off a good deal of trash in his talk, but once in a while he illustrates a point in a very capital way. The other day, when talking on the antagonisms of capital and labor, he gave this very sensible illustration: "Here is a shoe shop. One man in the shop is always busy at work during the day—always industrious. In the evening he goes courting some good, nice girl. There are five other men in the shop who don't do any such thing. They spend half their working hours in loafing, and their evenings in dissipation. The first young man by and by cuts out these others, and gets a boot and shoe store of his own. Then he marries the girl. Soon he is able to take his wife out to ride of an evening. The five laborers, his former companions, who see him indulging in this luxury, retire to a neighboring saloon and pass a resolution that here is an eternal struggle between labor and capital."

There is a good deal of truth in this, and here is a case in point. In a town not more than twenty two miles from Janesville, there lived a shoemaker, who had established quite a profitable business for a small town. In his employ was a young man who did not loaf at night nor drink beer. He worked faithfully during the day and spent his evenings at home. The proprietor finally became a little restless, and in searching for an easier job than that of managing his own business, obtained work in a public institution. The young men kept on in the even tenor of his way, made more money than he spent until his accumulations reached several hundred dollars. In the eyes of the labor agitators he became a capitalist, and so his former proprietor thought. But the thrifty young tradesman kept on in the straight line of industry, and to-day he owns a plate-glass front store, with a pretty little wife in one end and a large stock of goods in the other, and in the mending shop adjoining, there works for moderate wages the man who once owned the store and a good business. The old proprietor has become a journeyman cobbler and the young journeyman shoemaker the proprietor, all in the course of four years. Such changes in the affairs of men do not take place by chance. These are the mottoes: Idleness means failure: Industry means success.

THE WOMAN WINS.

The power of woman is already being felt at the white house. Things now are not as they were previous to last June. Then the administration ate pie for breakfast and worked in its shirt sleeves. There was no such thing as white house dances, and the executive mansion seemed more like bachelors hall than the sanctuary of home.

The other day Mrs. Cleveland went to New York to buy some clothes. The Washington papers said she had gone to town to do some shopping, and the New York dailies made mention of the fact that the wife of the president visited the city for the purpose of buying an outfit, and had a lady of experience with her. Of course this made a great stir among society women of both cities, and for a time all other gossip was abandoned, and the time was taken up with discussing Mrs. Cleveland's errand to New York But when, a day or two later, it was learned that the president's wife had bought nothing else than half dozen dancing dresses, society gossippers became disappointed and even chagrined to think how all their talk and conjectures had come to naught.

For some time Mrs. Cleveland had held a bold discussion with the president on the subject of dancing. He insisted that dancing was not necessary to reform, and that progressive civil service did not demand it. Once in a while a practical thought skips across the mind of Mr. Cleveland, and so he could not understand how an administration whose joints were stiffened by political rheumatism could so unbend as to dance to the tune of civil service reform, and at the same time call it fun. He thought of Garland, of Benton, of Higgins, of Pillsbury and of the thirty or more democratic congressmen that had been defeated last month, and how the hundreds of democrats who failed to get office were dancing with rage because of their failure.

But like other women of courage and tact, Mrs. Cleveland was not without her resources; and so she got down the books and the newspaper files to show her husband that in the good old days of Jeffersonian simplicity the people danced at the white house, and that Jackson, who pronounced that glorious democratic doctrine of "to the victors belong the spoils," could smoke his cob-pipe in one end of the white house while dancing by the young folks was going on in the other. The president, as austere as he is some times, could not withstand the gentle caressing of the melting tones of his beautiful wife, and at last he decided that rheumatism or no rheumatism, the administration must dance this winter.

THE WORLD OF LABOR.

New Movements, Cooperation, What Manufacturers and Capitalists are Doing. Coming Events. The World is Casting Off Its Old Clothes.

A cooperative underwear factory will be put in operation this week at Richmond. The Trenton cooperative society has purchased a location for $10,000, one fourth cash, one fourth to be paid in a year and the other half optional. Over twenty cooperative schemes have been heard of during the past few weeks.

Very nearly every state in the union gives information concerning building enterprises and new schemes of one kind and another for the employment of capital and labor. The industries are busy, and new ones are springing up everywhere. Old concerns are increasing their capacity. There seems to be an anxiety to hurry forward work for next year. A great many firms report double business this year over last. The stimulus of the past four months will lead to a great deal of enterprise in the extension of manufacturing capacity. A St. Louis rolling mill started last week after three years of idleness, and has 300 men at work and will soon have 600. A car wheel works will soon be started in Kansas City. A locomotive and machine shop works at Nashville is hurrying forward extensive additions in order to turn out cars and castings faster. A Jersey City concern for making steam heating apparatus will move to Chattanooga, Tenn.

The people east of the Mississippi are beginning to practically comprehend the magnitude and mightiness of the great empire west of the Mississippi.

Receipts of grain this season, at New York, 132,000,000 bushels against 111,000,000 last season. The London corn trade list says if American breadstuffs exports were doubled the supply would not be too much.

The booming industrial activity that is assured for 1887 will create a stronger demand and push up prices of wheat, corn and all farm products. The western and northwestern farmers will have their turn next year. So will the lumber men. Enormous building activity is promised all over the country and agricultural products will be in greater demand.

Steel rails have advanced $2 per ton and all kinds of iron and steel in proportion except nails. Buyers are cabling this week for quotations on 5,000 to 10,000 ton lots of steel rails, blooms, slabs, etc. Next year will be a grand railroad building year, and a grand year for the people.

A London paper once more warns English manufacturers that American agricultural machines are crowding them out in Norway, and says the English machines want that combination of lightness, adaptability and strength that is the result of thought and skill. It stands on its hind legs and howls: "We have been nearly driven out of all the continental markets for most articles of iron mongery," and wipes its tears by saying: "Surely the foolish system of sending any rubbish abroad and to the colonies is exploded by this time, and if Englishmen are to be beaten by foreigners they had better shut up at once."

There is a wonderful development of coal property throughout the United States. Prospects speak in glowing terms of new developments in a dozen states. All around Burlington, Iowa, shafts are being sunk. General Burk, an authority on coal, says that the demand all through Alabama, Louisiana, Arkansas and Texas is twice as great as the supply. Away out in Clifton, Kansas, several beds of valuable coal have just been struck. Away off in Manitoba, valuable beds have also been developed. Coal "very like anthracite," is being mined in Illinois. A nine foot vein has just been developed near Fort Collins, Colorado, 150 feet below the surface; and a two-foot vein has been found in Centralia, Missouri, fourteen feet below the surface. Even in Indiana county, Pennsylvania, a nine-foot vein has just been unearthed.

The demand for knit goods in the south is so active that a Columbus concern has just doubled its capacity, and is turning out what to them is a big product, but to us nothing, namely, 100 dozen half hose daily. The Newton, N. C., cotton mill people are filling up their works with a lot of new Lowell, Mass., machinery, and a company has just been formed to build a weaving mill at Hickory, N. C., for colored goods. The Huntsville people will soon have one of the finest cotton mills in the south, and a new cotton mill will soon be in running operation at Lexington, N. C.

The Knoxville woolen mills are turning out 3,000 yards of cloth per day. In fact, all the Southern mills are selling all the goods they can turn out.

One gas-lamp concern in this city has orders for five months ahead. A new silk factory is to be built at Norwich, Chenango county, N. Y., to employ 150 hands. A Biddeford, Me., concern, making dry goods, wants to double its capital stock to $2,500,000. All through Massachusetts textile manufacturers are increasing or preparing to increase their capacity. Fall River takes the lead, Lawrence, Lowell, Springfield and other cities are pushing ahead at a rapid rate. The boiler and engine manufacturers are unable to deliver machinery and power as fast as customers wish.

The New York workingmen are doing far more than the temperance people ever did to make Sunday a day of rest, as they have taken strong grounds against Sunday shop and store selling. They keep away from saloons, and thus act, at least, with consistency, and are earning the good opinion of the intelligent public. Mayor Grace has been called upon to enforce the Sunday law at the request of the Central Labor Union.

A state assembly is to be organized in Indianapolis on the 20th of December. At Minneapolis a grand K. of L. hall is to be built through the efforts of the association with a capital stock of $100,000. It will be a four-story building, especially fitted up with an auditorium for 2,000 people. It is to be ready for the next General Assembly.

Those who believe that nature will work off a cough or cold should understand that this is done at the expense of the constitution. Each time this weakens the system, and we all know that the termination of this dangerous practice is a consumptive's grave. Don't take the chances, when a fifty cent bottle of Dr. Bigelow's Cough Cure will safely and promptly cure any recent cough, cold or throat or lung trouble. Buy the dollar bottle for chronic cases or family use. & Evenson, opposite postoffice.

Want to Live on the Fat of the Land.

LANCASTER, Pa., Dec. 17.—Forty-eight tramps in the county work house refused to go to work Wednesday unless they were given roast beef and vegetable soup. They also demanded all the chewing and smoking tobacco they needed. They have fortified themselves in an old building, and one of the number has confessed that they had intended to secure the firearms in another building to battle with. Up to a late hour Wednesday night no serious outbreak had occurred. The authorities declare that they will deprive the tramps of food until they surrender.

The Stewart Art Treasures for Sale.

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—Ex-Judge Horace Russell said Thursday that the heirs of the late Mrs. A. T. Stewart have decided to sell the entire contents of the Stewart mansion at Fifth avenue and Thirty-fourth street, at auction in March. Previous to the sale, the paintings, sculptures, bronzes, porcelains, and rare works of art will be placed on view at the American Art gallery in Twenty-third street. The collection is even finer than has generally been supposed, according to statements by competent judges who have recently examined it.

The New Indian Commissioner.

WASHINGTON CITY, Dec. 17.—Rev. W. D. Walker, of Fargo, bishop of north Dakota, who was Thursday appointed to fill the vacancy on the board of Indian commissioners, is pronounced the best selection that could have been made. The bishop has labored for the Episcopal church in north Dakota for about three years, and is dotting it with tasty and attractive stone churches. Aside from personal fitness for the duties of the commission, he has been among the Indians much the last year or two and thoroughly investigated the the questions involved.

Born and Died on the Same Farm.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 17.—Gen. William G. Harding, the venerable proprietor of the noted Belle Meade stock farm, died Wednesday night, aged 78. He was born on the Belle Meade farm, which was first cultivated by his father.

DOW'S LAW WILL STAND,

BUT THE DECISION HAS THE USUAL POLITICAL FLAVOR.

Three Republicans Say "Yes" and Two Democrats Say "No"—How the Decision Is Received in Cincinnati—Heavy Penalties for Deferring Payment of the Tax.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Dec. 17.—Contrary to the expectations of many, the supreme court Thursday morning appeared on the bench and announced some opinions, among which were two affecting the Dow liquor law. The opinion of a majority of the court, that is, Judges Minshall, Spear and Dickman, was that the Dow law, as framed and enacted by the last general assembly, is constitutional to all intents and purposes, and that all litigation arising therefrom in the counties of the state must be settled by a strict concurrence in the provisions of the law. Chief Justice Owen and Judge Follett, the Democrats, dissent from this opinion.

The decision on the constitutionality of the celebrated law will settle an immense amount of litigation and will cause the county treasuries to swell. The Dow law, which substantially re-enacts the Scott law, the difference being in the local option clause, provides a tax of $200 upon any person selling intoxicating liquors, and makes several further provisions as to the separation of the business in respect to selling vinous or malt liquors only. For this branch it provides a tax of $100. Certain penalties were attached for non-payment. All interest at once centered in the syllabus, which it was expected would be given out Thursday evening. However, as soon as the judges retired to the consultation, it was announced that the opinion was not written and would not be until sometime during or after the holidays.

The News at Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 17.—The decision of the supreme court affirming the constitutionality of the Dow law, imposing a tax on saloons, was a subject of universal comment Wednesday, the better class of saloonkeepers making no objection to the payment of the $2,00 tax, but the worse element and smaller dealers are very loud in condemning it, because it confers no license and gives no privileges whatever, being merely a special tax that was intended to make the liquor interest bear its share of taxation. The decision settles the question of payment, but few, however, had paid the first half of the tax due last June, in hope that the court would decide the law unconstitutional. From these there is now a penalty due equal to the entire tax, and it is likely that there will be a long legal fight yet over the payment of the penalty. The relief that will be given taxpayers in Cincinnati by the decision will be very great, as it will bring about $375,000 from the city and $25,000 more from the county, besides the penalties. This money is so distributed as to be of great benefit in sustaining several departments of the city, especially the police department, which has run out of funds, so as to be unable to pay the men. The income of the Dow law will allow the police department to greatly increase its efficiency and bring the force up to its full complement of 400 men, as allowed by law, whereas there have been only from 200 to 280 men employed. The effect on the saloons is expected to be the same as under the Scott law of three years ago—to largely reduce the number, especially of the worst class. This decision was the most important ever given in Ohio on the liquor traffic.

The Clergy at the Ballet.

CHICAGO, Dec. 17.—Thursday evening the National Opera company repeated "Galatea" and Rubinstein's "Bal Costume" with the same pleasing results that were observed last Saturday evening, when this programme was first presented. Although about thirty of the clergy of the city had sent for tickets there were but five or six present so far as the reporters could make out. Those noticed in the audience were Rev. John Rushton, of Woodlawn; Rev. C. H. Bixby, of Hyde Park; Revs. William Hartman, A. Norden, J. C. Thompson, H. G. Perry, and Rabbi Felsenthal, of this city. Several of them were accompanied by their wives or daughters. Rev. Mr. Hartman said after the performance that he had seen the ballet before and there was nothing in this entertainment new to him. Revs. Bixby and Perry both said they saw nothing immoral in the ballet, and both gentlemen seemed delighted with their "night off."

A Mad Mother's Crime.

CHICAGO, Dec. 17.—When Mr. Joseph Kosa, a tailor's cutter, arrived at his home, 815 North Halstead street, Thursday night, after his day's work, he was obliged to force in the door of his apartments, and as he did so he was confronted by the dead bodies of his wife and 13-months-old infant hanging by straps from the transom. On a table was $45 cash and a note "To my husband," which stated that Mrs. Belevsdorf was the cause of it. The latter occupies a lower flat. The two families had been very intimate until a recent quarrel. This quarrel and her own ill-health had probably unsettled Mrs. Kosa's reason.

Ghastly Incident of the Rail.

RAHWAY, N. J., Dec. 17.—The telegraph operator handed to the conductor of the express train from Philadelphia on its arrival here Wednesday night a telegram from Jersey City saying: "Tell your engineer there is the body of a man on his engine." Upon examining the pilot of the engine, a man's body, terribly mangled, was discovered. It had been noticed at New Brunswick and a telegram was sent from there to the dispatcher's office at Jersey City, whence the above notice was sent back to the engineer. The engineer does not know when he struck the man. The body has not been identified.

Died of an Old Wound.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Dec. 17.—Col. J. G. Forraker, general superintendent of the trans-Ohio division of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad company, died Thursday morning at his home in Newark, Ohio, of blood poisoning, resulting from a wound received during the war. He was 50 years old and a cousin of Governor Foraker.

Failure in the Fur Business.

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—Charles A. Herspick, importer and manufacturer of furs at 93 Mercer street, is financially embarrassed. Attachments aggregating $102,000 in favor of English creditors have been issued against his property. His liabilities are estimated at $200,000, with assets considerably less.

Rosenberg Will Prosecute for Perjury.

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—Rosenberg, the McQuade juror who was accused by two clerks whom he had discharged of being on the jury in the interest of the boodlers, has made affidavits on which the men will be prosecuted for perjury.

Strike on the "Monon" Ended.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Dec. 17.—The strike on the Louisville, New Albany & Chicago railroad ended at noon Thursday. The company yielded to the demands of the conductors, and work was resumed at the rate of 3 cents per mile, an increase of ½ cent.

UTTERLY DISCOURAGED

Expresses the feeling of many victims of rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica and nervous or sick headache. Having tried numberless so-called remedies, and physicians of all schools, without relief, there seems to be no hope. Many such have as a last resort tried Athlophoros, and to their surprise and joy have found that it was a safe, sure and quick cure. Athlophoros is not an experiment; thousands have been cured by its use and they testify as to its value.

William Blair, train dispatcher of the D. G. H. & M. railroad, Detroit, Mich., says: "For about fifteen years I have been almost a constant sufferer from neuralgia, many times unfitting me for my business duties as well as making life a burden. The strain on my nerves was so great that I nearly lost the use of one of my eyes. I was suffering very much, and had never succeeded in getting anything that would give me but temporary relief, and that was of very short duration. The first bottle of Athlophoros made a very decided change, in fact I had some relief from a few doses. I probably have used a dozen bottles, and it is six months since I had a severe attack. I keep the medicine on hand all the time; I have some at my office and some at home, so that in case I should need it I am well prepared. I have had times during my use of this medicine that my neuralgia would come on during my business hours, and by having the medicine close at hand a dose or two would drive the neuralgia away. For neuralgia Athlophoros is undoubtedly the best medicine, and I think I ought to know, as I have during the many years that I have suffered had occasion to try about every thing in the line of medicines for this complaint."

Every druggist should keep Athlophoros and Athlophoros Pills, but where they cannot be bought of the druggist the Athlophoros Co., 112 Wall St., New York, will send either (carriage paid) on receipt of regular price, which is $1.00 per bottle for Athlophoros and 50c. for Pills.

For liver and kidney diseases, dyspepsia, indigestion, weakness, nervous debility, diseases of women, constipation, headache, impure blood, &c., Athlophoros Pills are unequaled.

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a receipt that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the REV. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, New York City.

RAID ON A RENT BUREAU.

SUDDEN DESCENT OF POLICE ON THE "PLAN OF CAMPAIGN."

The British Government Apparently Wants to See If Coercion Will Coerce—Dillon Arrested Again and the Rent Paid Him by Tenants Seized—London Press Comment—Foreign Notes.

DUBLIN, Dec. 17.—Mr. John Dillon and Mr. William O'Brien attended an immense National league demonstration at Loughrea Tuesday, which was presided over by Father Cunningham. A large number of clergymen, together with Commoners Harris and Sheehy, occupied seats on the platform and a numerous contingent of tenants from the estates of Lord Clanricarde were present among the audience. Messrs. Dillon and O'Brien addressed the meeting eloquently and at great length, and at the conclusion of the speeches these two gentlemen opened rent offices for the collection of rents under the league's "plan of campaign." Hundreds of tenants came forward and paid the sums they were willing or able to pay, when suddenly a strong force of police, headed by Inspector Davies, burst into one of the offices, seized the money, books and papers, and arrested Mr. Dillon, who was in charge. Mr. Dillon remonstrated with Inspector Davies and was assaulted and roughly handled by the police, unrestrained by the inspector.

The police then proceeded up-stairs to the office occupied by Mr. O'Brien, arrested that gentleman, and seized his books, papers, money, etc. Having secured the principals, the inspector sent a squad of police to arrest Messrs. Harris and Sheehy, and the four prisoners were arraigned before a magistrate and charged with conspiring to induce tenants to abstain from paying the rents they were lawfully bound to pay, which charge is included in the general one of conspiracy to defraud. The prisoners were remanded for one week.

When the police arrived Mr. Dillon had collected $400, and Mr. O'Brien about $350.

The leaders of the National league are not disturbed by the arrests, and have decided to pursue their present tactics to the end.

London Press Opinion.

LONDON, Dec. 17.—The Daily News expresses regret that the Nationalists meditate open defiance of the law, and declares that the English Liberals will not countenance outrage, dishonesty and resistance to the law.

The Morning Post urges the government to follow up the blow they have struck until the landlords are secure in their rights, and peace and order reigns in Ireland.

The Chronicle says should the drastic remedy applied by the government to prevent the intimidation and defrauding of landlords, they should apply to parliament for fresh powers.

The Telegraph says the action of the government deserves the unanimous approval of the country.

The Standard says the arrest of Messrs. Dillon, O'Brien, Harris, and Sheehy, and others, at Loughrea, marks the beginning of a death struggle between the National league and the law. The Nationalists imagine that Sir Michael Hicks Beach will shrink from filling the prisons with Irish priests and members of parliament, and it is the duty of the minister to show those crafty schemers that they have miscalculated both their own strength and that of the government.

The Times says the government must show that they, and not a secret conclave sitting in Dublin or New York, are the government of Ireland. If they will do this they will be supported by the approval of every loyal subject.

The Campbell Case Concluded.

LONDON, Dec. 17.—Dr. Bird was the only witness examined in the Campbell case Thursday and the last one. He emphatically denied the charges made against him by Lord Campbell's witnesses. He admitted taking Lady Campbell to his house one night when she was taken ill at a concert, but said that the cabman's story of lover-like conduct in the cab was false. He had known Lady Campbell since she was a child, and a letter seen in his instrument case by one of Lord Colin's witnesses was one written to him by Lady Campbell when she was but 10 years old. Gen. Butler's counsel said his client considered the charges against him so absurd that he would not take the trouble to appear and refute them. The judge thought Gen. Butler should have presented himself. Chief Shaw's counsel said his client's honorable record should stand against the evidence presented against him, and Dr. Bird's counsel spoke in the same strain. Mr. Finley, counsel for Lord Colin, said the case against his client was pulverized, and its collapse indicated that the plaintiff and Lady Miles were capable of anything.

England Negotiating with Rome.

DUBLIN, Dec. 17.—The Nation learns that in connection with the question of appointing a British ambassador to the vatican Lord Iddlesleigh asked that the British government shall have the right of objection to the appointment by the vatican of dangerous men in filling vacancies in the Catholic sees of Great Britain. To this request the vatican replied that persons who had rendered themselves liable to the action of the law should not be encouraged anywhere, nor would they be. The reply further says that the dissemination of the gospel of peace is the object of the church.

The Verviers Mail Robbers.

BRUSSELS, Dec. 17.—A considerable number of the letters stolen from the Ostend express at Verviers a short time ago were found Thursday in the reading-room of the Grand hotel in this city. They were tied in packages and secreted behind a desk. The attention of the police was called to this discovery and the waiters in the hotel recognized among the photographs in the hands of the police of persons suspected of committing the robbery, the likeness of a man who was a guest of the hotel a short time ago.

Tradesmen Object to Public Meetings.

LONDON, Dec. 17.—The west end tradesmen and rate payers have sent a petition to the government not to allow public meetings to be held in Trafalgar square in future, alleging that the recent Socialist meetings in that locality had greatly damaged their business, and if meetings were still permitted to be held there they would seriously injure the value of their property.

Filling the Prisons with Nihilists.

WARSAW, Dec. 17.—The prisons in this city are crowded with Anarchists and Nihilists and continuous arrests are being made. Two of those recently arrested have been hanged.

Sentencing Belfast Rioters.

BELFAST, Dec. 17.—Twenty-one of the men participants in the recent riots have been sentenced to various terms of imprisonment ranging from three months to seven years.

Arrived Safely.

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—The steamer La Bourgogne, from Havre, which was due last Sunday, arrived at her pier Thursday evening and landed her cabin passengers.

Brace Up.

You are feeling depressed, your appetite is poor, you are bothered with headache, you are fidgetty, nervous, and generally out of sorts, and want to brace up. Brace up, but not with stimulants, spring medicines, or bitters, which have for their basis very cheap, bad whisky, and which stimulate you for an hour, and then leave you in worse condition than before. What you want is an alterative that will purify your blood, start healthy action of liver and kidneys, restore your vitality, and give renewed health and strength. Such a medicine you will find in Electric Bitters, and only 50 cents a bottle at Frank Sherer & Co's. Drug store.

"DEESTRICK" INTERESTS.

THE INFLUENCE THEY HAVE UPON TARIFF LEGISLATION.

Speculation as to the Result of the Coming Fight—Van Wyck Explains and Buck Is Sorry—A Plea for the Freedmen's Bank Depositors—Rather Slow Paying Taxes.

WASHINGTON CITY, Dec. 17.—As the time draws nearer for a vote upon consideration of the tariff question, the hopes of both sides to the contest rise and fall from day to day. The first motion to be made is that the house go into committee of the whole to consider revenue bills. Upon this motion a small majority is claimed by each side, the difficulty in making calculations being that it can not be definitely ascertained what course will be pursued by those Republicans who desire a reduction of revenue yet do not approve of the Morrison plan of reduction. If the house should decide to go into committee on revenue bills the Morrison bill might be the one taken up, and in the ensuing contest the tariff rates might be changed in a way that would be unsatisfactory to certain localities. An instance illustrative of this point is furnished by Mr. Guenther, of Wisconsin, a Republican and protectionist. He says: "We must reduce the revenues in order to prevent a disturbance of business which will be caused by piling up money in the treasury," but says he is afraid the house may amend the Morrison bill to put lumber on the free list, which in his opinion would be contrary to the interests of his districts. He admits that he is inclined to vote to proceed to reduce taxation, but it is expected that he will vote against Morrison's bill at the very first step. Other instances are known of Republicans who are wavering because they fear that certain interests in their districts may be injured. Long of Massachusetts says the time has come for a reduction of taxation, but he will oppose it upon the excuse that there is not time enough to do it this session. Hayden and Stone of Massachusetts, Republicans, are accounted doubtful, with the chances in favor of their voting to send it to a joint committee of the whole on revenue bills and for reducing tariff taxes. This would be a gain of two votes. Some of the Louisiana members hesitate to take any risk and will probably vote with Randall. The Morrison men are not sanguine as they were a few days ago, yet claim that the motion to go into committee of the whole will be carried, probably without contest, and that they will have three majority in favor of taking up the Morrison bill. The opposition estimate that upon this question the vote will stand 145 for and 155 against Morrison—that is, that 138 Democrats and seven Republicans will vote in favor of making the Morrison bill the basis of whatever reduction of taxation may be made this session, and that twenty-seven Democrats and 128 Republicans will vote against it. In this calculation the opposition give Morrison five more votes than he had last June upon the same proposition. They say they also give him the benefit of all members whom they consider doubtful. Lawler and Ward were counted against Morrison. The seven Republicans deemed doubtful but counted on Morrison's side are four from Minnesota, James of New York, and Hayden and Stone of Massachusetts. If the opposition should have a majority against considering the Morrison bill they may attempt to take up some other of the several revenue bills on the calendar, but it is not believed that they will be able to hold their forces together.

VAN WYCK'S EXPLANATION.

He Repudiates Certain Charges Made Against Him—Congressional Record.

WASHINGTON CITY, Dec. 17.—Van Wyck made a personal explanation in the senate Thursday in moving to make a special order for Jan. 11 the bill for the relief of settlers in Kansas and Nebraska adjoining the Denver & St. Joseph railway. He said that because he owned land in this region many malicious falsehoods had been published, attempting to make it appear that his advocacy of the bill was to fill his own pockets. He had never voted on the bill either in committee or elsewhere and simply left it to the judgment of the senate, and if the relief for other owners could be obtained he would be glad if the senate would omit from the operations of the bill those lands owned by him. Van Wyck's motion was agreed to. A bill was introduced to fix the salaries of commissioners of education and labor at $5,000 each. A resolution was adopted instructing the finance committee to consider the propriety of a bill giving a rebate on all materials imported and afterward used with domestic materials in manufactures for export. Beck apologized for his remarks made Wednesday reflecting on the judiciary committee in connection with the bill to prohibit members from acting as railroad attorneys. Consideration of the bill to repeal the tenure-of-office act was resumed. Edmunds said state governors were not given kingly power, and it was more important that the president should not have such power. George advocated the bill, and Evarts said he would vote for it on grounds of expediency, but not on constitutional grounds. Without action the senate went into executive session and afterward adjourned.

In the house a bill was passed giving pensions to persons who, though not regularly enlisted in the navy, performed the duties of petty officers. Remonstrances against Dunn's free ship bill were presented from a number of boards of trade and vessel associations, on the ground that it would destroy the American ship-building industry. The senate bill to allot lands in severalty to Indians, and the urgent deficiency for the public printing office were passed, and in committee of the whole the sundry civil bill was taken up. The bill was completed in committee and reported to the house and the previous question ordered, and then the house adjourned.

The Freedmen's Bank.

WASHINGTON CITY, Dec. 17.—A report from the comptroller of the currency, ex-officio commissioner of the Freedmen's Savings and Trust company, on the affairs of that institution was laid before the house of representatives Thursday. It shows that on Dec. 4 there was a balance on hand of $7,719. The comptroller makes a strong plea in favor of the government assuming the liabilities of the institution to its depositors.

The Coast Survey Report.

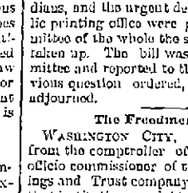

WASHINGTON CITY, Dec. 17.—Secretary Manning transmitted to the house of representatives Thursday the report of F. M. Thorn, superintendent of the coast and geodetic survey, showing the progress made in the work during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1886, and accompanied by charts illustrating the general advance in the operations of the survey up to that date.

The Army Appropriation Bill Ready.

WASHINGTON CITY, Dec. 17.—The house committee on military affairs has completed the army appropriation bill for the next fiscal year. It appropriates $33,557,238. The estimates submitted aggregated $25,524,757, and the appropriations for the current year amounted to $28,724,001. Among the legislative provisions incorporated in the bill is a clause limiting the mileage of officers to 4 cents per mile.

A Home for Mrs. Hancock.

WASHINGTON CITY, Dec. 17.—The friends of the late Gen. W. S. Hancock have, as a token of regard for his memory, raised a sum of money with which they have purchased a home for his widow in this city, which will hereafter be her home. The house selected is at the southern corner of Twenty-first and R streets, and the interior arrangement is that of a double house, affording ample facilities for social purposes. The house is constructed of brown stone, with brick introduced with very effective results. It is expected the house will be ready for occupation early in the spring.

MRS. HANCOCK.

A Farewell Dinner to Hewitt.

WASHINGTON CITY, Dec. 17.—A farewell dinner will be given to Hon. Abram S. Hewitt by his colleagues of the New York congressional delegation on Saturday at Chamberlain's. The only invited guests will be Speaker Carlisle and Messrs. Randall, Morrison and Tucker.

Better Late Than Never.

WASHINGTON CITY, Dec. 17.—A conscience contribution was received at the treasury Thursday in an envelope post-marked New York city. The sender said he thought the amount due the government on account of his income tax.

Official Appointment.

WASHINGTON CITY, Dec. 15.—The president has appointed Rev. William D. Walker, of Fargo, D. T., to be a member of the board of Indian commissioners, vice William T. Johnson, resigned.

INDORSED FOR HIS FRIENDS.

Heavy Failure of a Massachusetts Speculator—Half a Million Involved.

ASHBURNHAM, Mass., Dec. 17.—The announcement Thursday morning of the failure of Charles Winchester, of this place, for $350,000, and the possible embarrassment of several banks in consequence, caused a sensation in business circles. Winchester is at the head of a number of New England syndicates who have invested in southern pine lands and western lumber and salt enterprises. His trouble seems to have resulted from too liberal indorsements for friends. Among those for whom he indorsed are Monroe Bros., of Cleveland, Ohio, $100,000, and Golden Bros., of Marlboro, Mass., dealers in waste, etc., $70,000. The Boston Trust company has $400,000 of his unsecured paper; the Fitchburg National bank, $50,000 unsecured; the Rollston National bank, also of Fitchburg, $100,000, partly unsecured. The late failure of Monroe Bros. and Golden Bros. precipitated matters. A committee has gone west to see what can be got out of the Cleveland people and the lumber interests. The banks concerned have issued circulars telling depositors not to be excited, and that they will make a full statement in a few days. Mr. Winchester hopes to compromise with his creditors.

The Coal Pool Suit.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Dec. 17.—Joseph S. Harris, president of the Lehigh Coal & Navigation company, and supposed to be secretary of the coal pool, was the first witness called Thursday morning at the hearing of the suit of Attorney General Cassidy against the anthracite coal combination, which began Thursday. Mr. Harris declined, under advice of counsel, to answer any questions whatever concerning the subject at issue.

Mr. Olmstead, counsel for the Lehigh company, said he desired to go on record as calling the attention of the attorney general to the fact that there was filed in the Dauphin county court a motion to vacate the rule under which the examination was proceeding, and that Tuesday next had been named for a hearing. President Roberts, of the Pennsylvania company, also refused to testify on the same grounds as Mr. Harris, as did several other witnesses. Attorney General Cassidy then gave notice to the defence to produce all their witnesses, together with all papers mentioned in the subpœnaes, at Harrisburg in the court of common pleas on Tuesday.

Judge Cooley Appointed Receiver.

CHICAGO, Dec. 17.—The Wabash receivership matter was before Judge Gresham again in Thursday afternoon on a motion to enter the decree in conformity with the decision already rendered by the court removing the present receivers, and for the appointment of another receiver to take their place. After some talk by the lawyers, during which Gen. Swayne said he had no one to propose for receiver, the court said several names had been suggested to him, but none of them had received the approval of all parties in interest and he did not think it would be possible for them all to agree. He had made up his mind as to whom he would appoint receiver, and decided to appoint Judge Cooley, of Michigan, who was a well-known railroad man, and one who must command the confidence of all parties interested.

Remarkable Liberality.

BOSTON, Dec. 17.—Gilbert A. Hickey, a hordic driver, drove a passenger to the Suffolk savings bank Thursday. The passenger drew about $2,000 in money and resumed his seat, but had dropped his roll of bills on the sidewalk. A podestrian called Hickey's attention to the fact and the latter picked up the money and opening the door of the herdic restored it to the astonished owner. The passenger, who is a well-known Boston merchant, rewarded the finder for his honesty by giving him a drink.

Death of a Prominent Bostonian.

BOSTON, Dec. 17.—The Hon. Marshall P. Wilder, one of Boston's most esteemed and best known citizens, died suddenly at 10:30 a. m. Thursday, aged 86. He was born in Rendge, N. H., received a common school education, came here in 1825 and entered the West India goods and groceries trade. In 1835 he formed the copartnership which is doing business under the name of Parker, Wilder & Co.

Didn't Get His Fifty Thousand.

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—The suit of Professor C. B. Dwinelle against the New York Central Railroad company for $50,000 damages for permanent injuries resulting from an assault by a sleeping-car porter was dismissed Thursday by the court, on the ground that the porter was not acting as a servant of the company when committing the assault.

Mustn't Even Guess at Squash Seed.

HAVERHILL, Mass., Dec. 17.—William A. Niblock and Alexander H. Reed, dry goods merchants, were held for the grand jury Thursday for maintaining a gift enterprise under the system of guessing upon the number of seeds in squashes.

An Absent Minded Lady.

An absent minded New York lady, who is conspicuous in society, finished her toilet not long ago for an evening at the theatre, and as a finishing touch drank the eau de cologne that stood on her dressing case. She was seriously sick for over a fortnight.—New York Letter.

A Lucky Shot.

A Sonoma, Cal., hunter saw a deer under a small madrona tree 200 yards away. He fired and missed the deer, but hit the tree about six inches above the animal's head, knocking off a splinter four inches long that struck the deer's head with such force as to penetrate the skull and cause instant death.

Sampling the Cider.

One of the institutions of Connecticut this fall is the cider boat, who, pretending to be out buying cider, samples the farmers' apple juice, gets invited to eat dinner or take tea, says he'll call again and goes on his dishonest way.

An Increase of Salary.

Gayarre, the Spanish tenor, sixteen years ago got eighty cents a night for singing in a music hall at Madrid. Now he has made an engagement to sing at the opera fifty nights for $70,000.

He Deserved It.

Preacher Callahan, of Madison, Ga., lost ten bales of cotton by fire. His friends are making up a purse for him, and a local newspaper says that he deserves it because he "is honest, a tanner and has nine unmarried daughters."

Their Business Booming.

Probably no one thing has caused such a general revival of trade at Frank Sherer & Co's Drug Store as their giving away to their customers of so many free trial bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Their trade is simply enormous in this very valuable article, from the fact that it always cures and never disappoints. Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup, and all throat and lung diseases quickly cured. You can test it before buying by getting a trial bottle free, large size $1. Every bottle warranted.

A cheerful fire, perfect combustion and healthful ventilation is secured in this stove. It will be readily admitted that the warmth from an open fire is the most genial and desirable of any form of artificial heat. In the Orient we are satisfied we have the handsomest, cheapest, and most perfect operating stove in the market. By regulating ventilators in lower blowers, fire may be kept all night. This stove has a new and novel Draw Blower, and is provided with an automatic catch, so that the blower can be both raised and lowered by the use of a nickel plated handle which is furnished with each stove. Tile or improved cast sectional back. We guarantee the perfect operation of every stove; we also carry a full line of Acorn, Royal Argand, Westminster, Stoves and Ranges, Hardware, Guns, Sporting Goods, and Farm Machinery. Stoves blacked and set up by first-class workmen. Tin and Gun shop connected with store. Myers' block, Corn Exchange Square.

Ready to Abdicate.

A New York correspondent writes that there recently appeared up town a young and rich citizen of Chicago, just back from Europe, and arrayed in the most proper manner possible from the dude standpoint. He was very anxious to meet Mr. Berry Wall, who has long borne the title "King of the Dudes," so a mutual friend brought them together. When the stranger was presented Berry stepped back, took him in slowly from head to toes, and exclaimed: "Ye gods! I abdicate."

Anxious for Particulars.

The following notice in a Montana newspaper is not calculated to sooth the feelings of the thief who stole Mr. Sampson's bay mare: "The night of the 14th inst. a dark bay mare, fifteen hands high, small white star in forehead, both hind feet white, was stolen from the stable of Ira Sampson, the undersigned. I will give the mare and $50 in cash for full and reliable particulars regarding the funeral of the thief. That's the kind of a man I am."

Mrs. Cleveland's Mail.

Mrs. Cleveland is said to receive more letters from Hagerstown, Md., than from any other place in the country. Shortly after her marriage two little girls living in that town sent her a letter and a bouquet of flowers. The letter was answered, and in a short time was copied by the town newspapers. From that time Mrs. Cleveland has been addressed by young and old from Hagerstown on all sorts of subjects and for all sorts of purposes.—Chicago Herald.

A Lesson in Dynamics.

A Rome (N. Y.) girl filled three stone beer jugs with wet sand, corked them tightly and set them in the oven to heat so that she could warm her bed with them. The heat generated steam from the wet sand and an explosion followed, which filled the room with flying sand and fragments of beer jugs. The girl and the rest of the family were badly scared, but escaped unhurt. The Rome girls are now giving up the use of artificial bed warmers.—Chicago Herald.

A Swindle in Shoe Polish.

A sharp young man has been swindling the shoe dealers of East Greenwich, N. Y., by selling them what seemed to be a remarkably fine article of shoe polish, for which he asked 75 per cent. more than the price asked for the ordinary French polish. After he delivered the goods and received the money it was discovered that each bottle contained about two tablespoonfuls of the polish on top of sawdust and glue.

Actor Barrett and Gen. Sherman.

Mr. Wilson Barrett, the English actor, says that the most interesting man he has met in this country is Gen. Tecumseh Sherman. When first introduced the general wanted to talk about theatres. He has a fondness for the drama and dramatic people. But Mr. Barrett skillfully brought him around to the war, and for an hour or two had the pleasure of listening to a most charming recital of history.—New York Sun.

Fishing for a Tapeworm.

A Georgia paper publishes as truth the story of a Marion county farmer who became satisfied that he had a tapeworm. So he carefully baited a little fishhook, tied a short line to it, swallowed the hook, and tied the line to his buttonhole. Then he waited for a bite. By and by he thought he had one and yanked the line; the hook caught in his throat, and had to be dug out. He didn't catch the worm.—New York Sun.

A Valuable Vineyard.

The noted "Sunny Slope" estate, near San Gabriel, Cal., has been sold to an English syndicate for a little over $1,000,000. The property includes the Sunny Slope vineyard and orange grove, 1,950 acres, of which 750 are in vines, 153 in orange and lemon trees, and 20 in miscellaneous fruits, and cultivated lands in grain, etc., to the extent of 1.025 acres.—New York Sun.

But He Was Mistaken.

A Napa, Cal., man thought he saw a sea serpent in the river there, but it was only a solid mass of little fishes, each about an inch and a half long. The school was about fifty yards long and a yard wide, and headed up stream. The commotion they made was caused by hundreds of large fishes that were continually throwing themselves among and eating up the little ones.—Chicago Herald.

Men and Women in Life's Prime

Who rise unrefreshed, feel languid through the day, have little appetite, and whose faces exhibit a sallow tint, are on the short route to the grave. Unless they can effect a radical change in their condition they will not reach old age. Invigoration is the only means of their physical salvation. Upon Hostetter's Stomach Bitters they can rely to furnish them with the stamina, which is a perrequisite of health, and to remove that prime cause of continued debility, indigestion and non assimilation of the food. We class these causes as one since they are joint functions of one organ, the stomach, chiefly. Built up and rehabilitated with this superb restorative of vigor, the system may bid defiance to malaria, rheumatism, bladder and kidney diseases, and other maladies prone to attack the enfeebled. The Bitters not only affords a safeguard against disease of a virulent type, but effects a prompt reform in the condition of a drowsy or disordered liver and irregular bowels.

Save the Children. They are especially liable to sudden Colds, Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. We guarantee Acker's English Remedy a positive cure. It saves hours of anxious watching. Sold by Prentice & Evenson, opp. postoffice.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. The South Full of New Stock Companies and a Big Boom On.

BALTIMORE, Md., Dec. 17.—The Baltimore Manufacturers' Record of Dec. 18, under the head of "The Gigantic Industrial Developments in the South During the Last Two Weeks," will say that never before, probably, in the history of the country has there been such an era of industrial development as we now see in the south. A summary of the reports received by The Record from all parts of the south is as follows:

In Alabama there has been reported the Ensley Land company, capital stock $10,000,000, to build a manufacturing town near Birmingham, establish water and electric light works, and manufacture iron and steel. Four other companies, with capital running from $150,000 to $800,000, have been organized at Birmingham for similar work. A $3,000,000 company, organized at Florence, has arranged to build three large furnaces. A $500,000 company has been organized to purchase and refit an old cotton mill at the same place. At Birmingham there has been organized a $100,000 ax and tool company, and a new rolling mill is to be built. At Sheffield a $100,000 pipe and nail mill, an additional furnace, and electric light and gas works. A Memphis company has been organized to build furnaces and mine coal near Jasper. An old furnace at Round mountain is being put in shape to go in blast again. An ice factory at Montgomery, carriage factory at Meridian, $50,000 electric light company and a $50,000 water works company at Florence.

Arkansas reports two smelters, two $8,000,000 mining companies, and one of $5,000,000. In Florida, a $25,000 furniture factory, electric light works and a number of lumber mills.

Georgia—$50,000 fertilizer company to build factories at nine or ten points, a $50,000 glass factory, $50,000 iron and machine company, plow factory and other enterprises.

In Kentucky we have had a $50,000 coal and iron company, a $1,000,000 lumber and mineral land development company, a $50,000 carpet company.

Tennessee has captured a $200,000 stove works, $5,000,000 company to manufacture iron and steel, a $150,000 light and heat company, a $100,000 marble quarrying company, a $100,000 electric light company. Besides these numerous smaller companies are reported in Texas, Virginia and West Virginia.

PURIFICATION OF POLITICS.

Maryland Democrats Organize for That Purpose.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 17.—A meeting of reform Democrats for the purpose of preparing to reorganize the party, was held here Thursday. Among those present were ex-Governor William T. Hamilton, of county; Gen. Bradley T. Johnson, of Washington county; John K. Owen, of Baltimore city; Senator J. C. Lane, of Washington county, and a large number of others from all over the state. Governor Hamilton presided.

An address was issued to the Democratic voters of Maryland calling upon all who deprecate the methods of machine politics and political rings and cliques, to attend a general meeting to be held in Baltimore, on Tuesday, Jan. 11, 1887, to take in full consideration what action may be thought necessary and expedient to be taken in the premises. The address says: "Bribing at elections is a growing and alarming evil and should be suppressed with a firm hand. Equally so is the extraordinary and unnecessary use of money at elections, which can only be either directly or indirectly intended to corrupt or seduce the voter. Rings, bosses, and leadership, and all other combinations within the party formed to promote personal interest or the aggrandizement of individuals are dangerous to the peace, unity, and integrity of the party and should be wiped out of existence."

Politics in Dakota.

HURON, Dec. 17.—The constitutional convention in session here Thursday considered the question of repealing the clause in the constitution providing that the state government shall not go into power until congress has admitted the territory as a state. After a spirited debate the clause was repealed and then the following resolution was adopted: "That this convention recommends that the state legislature make provision at its present session for the submission to the people of the state, at the general state election to be held in November next, the question: Shall the state government go into operation in all of its departments on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in January, 1888?" The convention adjourned Thursday evening to meet here on the first Wednesday in June next. This resolution was a surprise to everybody.

A 15-Year-Old Postal Thief.

MERIDEN, Conn., Dec. 17.—For some time past letters with money in them have been missing from the Meriden postoffice. W. A. Kelsey & Co., manufacturers of the Excelsior printing presses, who received considerable sums of money by mail, were the principal victims. Suspicion pointed towards Frank Hess, 15 years old, who had charge of the delivery window. Thursday afternoon the money order clerk addressed a decoy letter to W. A. Kelsey & Co., with a marked dollar bill enclosed, and it was afterward found on young Hess. He was arrested, but denied taking the letter, alleging that he found it on the pavement and forgot to mention it to the postmaster.

Will Raise the Price of Wagons.

CHICAGO, Dec. 17.—The National Wagon Manufacturers' association met Thursday morning at the Grand Pacific hotel, and a resolution was unanimously adopted advancing the price of wagons 10 per cent., owing to an advance in iron and other materials used in their construction. Thirty-one manufacturers were present, representing 70 per cent. of the wagon product of the United States and an aggregate capital of $8,000,000 to $10,000,000.

A New Turf Association Wanted.

CHICAGO, Dec. 17.—At Thursday's convention of the International Association of Fairs and Expositions a resolution was adopted declaring "that the best interests and the fair conduct of speed trials all over the country require the formation of a new association for the regulation of the same, independent of any like association now in existence, and that the fairs in this association which include premiums for speed in their catalogue will heartily aid such a movement."

Governor Croswell Buried.

ADRIAN, Mich., Dec. 17.—Ex-Governor Charles M. Croswell was buried in Oakwood cemetery at this place Thursday. The funeral was conducted by Rev. W. K. Spencer, of the Presbyterian church, using the Episcopal ritual. Many distinguished people were present, and Judges Norman Geddis and Thomas M. Cooley delivered eloquent eulogiums.

The Richmond & Danville Railway.

RICHMOND, Va., Dec. 17.—At an adjourned meeting of the stockholders of the Richmond & Danville Railway company, held at the company's office here at noon Thursday, Col. A. S. Buford tendered his resignation as president and Mr. Alfred Sully, of New York, was elected in his stead.

What True Merit Will Do.

The unprecedented sale of Boschee's German Syrup within a few years, has astounded the world. It is without doubt the safest and best remedy ever discovered for the speedy and effectual cure of Coughs, Colds and the severest Lung troubles. It acts on an entirely different principle from the usual prescriptions given by physicians, as it does not dry up a cough and leave the disease still in the system, but on the contrary removes the cause of the trouble, heals the part affected and leaves them in a purely healthy condition. A bottle kept in the house for use when the disease makes their appearance, will save doctor's bills and a long spell of serious illness. A trial will convince you of these facts. It is positively sold by all druggists and general dealers in the land. Price 75 cts., large bottles.

MELLIN'S FOOD, the only perfect substitute for mothers' milk, is recommended by our most prominent physicians as the best and safest food for infants. It contains no farinaceous matter, which so often produces disorders of the stomach

CONDENSED NEWS.

The late Mrs. Theresa Lamb, of Lawrenceburg, Ind., left $250 for the care and support of a terrier dog.

Governor Alger, of Michigan, will on Christmas give to each of 487 newsboys of Detroit a suit of clothes.

A new railway of seventy-two miles in Arizona, running from Prescott to Chino, will be in operation about New Year's day.

Farmers in the northern portion of Wales are resisting the collection of church tithes to the extent of expelling the bailiffs from their districts.

James Howard, of Bowie county, Texas, who branded his young wife with a letter H, was during Wednesday night taken from jail and lynched by his neighbors.

Carl Mussfeldt, one of the Milwaukee rioters whose sentence was recently suspended by Judge Sloan on promise of good behavior, was Thursday arrested for a brutal assault upon his father.

John J. Fox, of St. Paul, leaped from a limited express train in the suburbs of Pittsburg, escaping with a slight wound on the scalp. He claims that he was followed by suspicious strangers.

Among the Republican candidates for senator from Minnesota are ex-Governor C. K. Davis, of St. Paul; R. C. Langdon and Thomas Lowry, of Minneapolis, and Gordon E. Cole, of Faribault.

Richard Edwards, the now superintendent of public instruction for Illinois, desires to appoint J. H. Freeman, of Aurora, as his assistant, and the latter has been released from a contract with that understanding.

The senate Thursday passed a bill granting a pension to the step-mother of a soldier, and refused to reconsider its action. Spooner introduced a bill for a public building at Milwaukee at a cost not exceeding $1,200,000.

A swindler, representing himself as connected with the geological survey at Washington, has been operating throughout the western country for four years, generally using the name of Capt. Clarence E. Dutton.

An Alleged Expose.

AMSTERDAM, N. Y., Dec. 17.—The Amsterdam Democrat Thursday evening devoted two columns to "a complete description of all the signs and symbols in use among the Knights of Labor throughout the country, taken from the official documents sent out to the high members of the order by Central Secretary and Treasurer Frederick Turner." The Democrat says that it is genuine, and will prove valuable to those desiring to form secret societies. In the description occurs the following: Entering signal, inner veil, three raps given in this peculiar manner: One, a short pause, then two in quick possession. Grip, extend the hand, with the thumb parallel with the forefinger and close to it, clasp hands with the fingers without locking the thumbs, with a side pressure of the thumb on the outside, thumbs still extended parallel with each other, then end by locking the thumbs and an ordinary shake of the hand.

ST. JACOBS OIL

INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM

TRIUMPHANT TESTIMONY.

In Spite of Doctors.

My wife (professionally known as Patti Rosa) was taken, while in Hartford, Conn., with nerve inflammatory rheumatism, and the doctors said it would be impossible to move her for three weeks. I had given up all hopes, but was persuaded to try St. Jacobs Oil. She began to improve, and was soon able to walk. The doctors said it would only last a short time, but she played that night and did finer than at any time during the season.
ROBERT L. SCOTT.

Threw Away His Cane.

9 Fifth Avenue, Chicago, Ill.
I have suffered for five years with inflammatory rheumatism. Have been to Hot Springs, Ark., and Mount Clemens Springs, Mich., and failed to effect a cure. I finally tried St. Jacobs Oil and have thrown away my cane which I had been using for three years. I can now walk as well as ever. JOHN SHEPPERD.

Helpless as a Child.

23 N. Stricker St., Baltimore, Md.
For the past four years I have been afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism, which rendered me as helpless as a child, being unable to move without assistance. Nothing the doctors could do seemed to afford any relief, and finally I tried St. Jacobs Oil. It immediately removed all soreness and inflammation.
H. W. LANDRAM.

His Feet like two Cushions.

Lambertville, N. J.
I had a severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism in both feet and ankles, which swelled up like two cushions, and finally was confined to the house, not being able to take a step. I was in utter despair. I tried St. Jacobs Oil, and before I had used half a bottle, the swellings and pains had entirely disappeared, and I could walk with ease. JOS. J. SOUDERS.

It is as necessary to have pure air in an oven, where our food is cooked, as in the house we live in. In an ordinary air tight oven, the oxygen, the life sustaining properties of the air, is burnt out, leaving carbonic acid gas, a poison to be absorbed by the article being cooked. The Badger stoves and ranges are constructed to admit a circulation of fresh air into the oven. Lives there a man with soul so dead, who unto his wife hath said, I can't afford a Badger. Brieflets.

—Clean your sidewalks.

—"Change cars for Evansville."

—Will the stores close on Christmas?

—The new scenery for the opera house is being put in place. Some of it arrived to-day.

—The Bon Ami club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Carpenter last last evening.

—It must make a thermometer discouraged to hear the cold weather stories that are told nowadays.

Grand holiday 'opening' at the N. Y Saving Store, Saturday, Dec. 18th. Immense display of Christmas goods.

—Rev. E. D. Huntley, formerly of this city, is seriously ill, and is now at Hot Springs, Arkansas, undergoing treatment.

—Hon. L. B. Caswell has our thanks for a complete set of the Congressional Record, first session of the Forty-Ninth congress.

—Rock River Encampment No. 3, I. O. O. F. assembles in regular semi-monthly meeting this evening at Odd Fellows hall.

—The Concordia Society and their families and a few invited friends, enjoyed a pleasant social gathering at Concordia hall last evening.

—A warrant has been sworn out against Gustaff Reichoff, of the town of Janesville, for illegitimate parentage. The complainant is Eliza Hoover.

—People's Lodge No. 460, Independent Order of Good Templars—regular weekly meeting this evening—lodge room in the Court Street M. E. church block.

—The latest soap advertisement represents a very seedy looking tramp writing a testimonial. It reads, "I used your soap two years ago and have not needed any since."

—Olive Branch Lodge No. 36. Ancient Order of United Workmen, assembles in regular semi monthly meeting this evening—lodge room in the Lappin block, East Milwaukee street.

—Snow is reported to have delayed one or two of the trains on the Madison division of the Northwestern several hours. The road near Winona is understood to be in very bad condition.

—The extraordinary Shepherd's Fold scene in the "Wall Street Bandit" that opens the new opera house next Monday evening is taken from the records of the New York Society for the prevention of cruelty to children.

—"Kiss Me," says the tiny little girl in the Shepherd's Fold scene in "A Wall Street Bandit", but when the visiting committeeman looked at her in surprise, "kiss me," she pleaded again, "for I never was kissed in my whole life."

—The Young People's Literary Society of the Court Street M. E. church have arranged an entertaining programme for their semi-monthly meeting this evening at the church parlors. All friends are invited to call and enjoy themselves.

During Christmas holidays a beautiful colored imperial portrait of Mme. Recamier, taken from the celebrated picture by Gerald, will be presented by Prentice & Evenson to each person purchasing a jar of Recamier Cream or a bottle of Recamier Balm.

—An interesting programme has been prepared for the entertainment to be given by the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor at the Baptist church parlors this evening. The friends of the society are cordially invited to be present. No admission fee will be charged.

—The Grand Union ball of engine companies No.'s 1 and 2 will take place one week from to-night at the Guards armory. The arrangements are completed for a happy Christmas time. Tickets only one dollar. All dance. Smith & Corliss' orchestra will furnish the music.

—Last evening the Choral Union began rehearsing some of the choruses that will be used at the Gilmore concert in March. This concert was postponed because Mr. Gilmore was obliged to return to New York, but he is now coming west again, and has just sent music for the Union to take up.

—A. P. Burnham, agent American Express Co., is making arrangements for the rush of business accompanying the holidays. The American reaches to the far east and south and in connection with the Wells, Fargo Express, reaches all points west and northwest at low rates making quickest time and very prompt delivery. Their office is at No. 50 West Milwaukee street.

—Two well dressed middle aged women appeared before Judge Bennett to-day and asked for decrees of divorce from their respective husbands. They were Mrs. Jennie Blackford and Mrs. L. B. Garland, both of Monroe. Mrs Blackford asked for a legal separation on account of cruel and inhuman treatment, while Mrs. Garland alleged desertion and failure to support. The decrees were granted. Colin W. Wright appeared as attorney for the plaintiff, and in both cases the defendants being in default.

—A postal card from New York to Captain John Neal announces that the brig "Garnett", of the Trowbridge line, on her return trip from the West Indies, was lost with all her cargo. The crew is all safe and landed in Philadelphia. The Garnett was the vessel in which the late Judge H. S. Conger and Dr. S. S. Judd made their tour to the West Indies several years ago. Then Captain Neal was her master, and Olson first mate. Captain John Neal, of the Cameo, same line, left for New York on Wednesday.

—Among the assets of McCullagh & Galbraith—a complete statement having been filed in the circuit court—are over six hundred dollars in accounts "deemed doubtful or uncollectable." Many of the names are a striking commentary on the way that obligations drop out of sight. The principal creditor of the firm is H. J. MacFarland, assignee of A. S. Gage & Co., Chicago, although Edson Keith & Co., Marshall Field & Co., Belding Bros. & Co. and several other wholesale houses have accounts for sums of various sizes. There are also one or two notes for comparatively large amounts, held by Janesville parties. The goods and fixtures are valued at $2,600.29.

—The Madison Democrat:—Janesville people are preparing for a grand "blow out" to take place in that city next Saturday evening. They are going to celebrate the completion of the Myers opera house. Bach's celebrated band will be there. The Chocolataire drill team (if you know what that is) will also be on hand. By the way, if Mr. Myers will come up to Madison and build an opera house, the folks here will just double discount any other city in the state celebrating the event—the opening business. Forty bands of music will be engaged, and we'll get out a chocolate team, and four or five beer teams, and tip over things in general. Well, we'll guarantee that Mr. Myers will delight to linger at the Capital City, after he gets his job finished.

THE NEW REMEDY for Rheumatism and Pains in the Chest, is "POMEROY'S PETROLINE PLASTERS." Prentice & Evenson, opposite postoffice.

THE WINTER SOLSTICE.

The Shortest Days and the Longest Nights of the Year at Hand.

The shortest days and the longest nights of the year, says the La Crosse Chronicle, are now at hand. During December the days continue to decrease in length until the 17th. They then remain of the same length until the 25th, when there is an increase of one minute. On the 1st the sun rose at 6:54 a. m., and sets at 4:16 p. m., making the day nine hours twenty-two minutes long. On the 31st the sun rises at 7:14 a. m, and sets at 4:22 p. m., making the day nine hours nine minutes long. Thus on the last day of the month the day is thirteen minutes shorter than at the commencement. The days shorten slowly until the 17th, then remain without change for the eight following days, and then the programme changes. The sun turns his face northward, his extreme point of southern declination, 23 degrees 27 minutes, has been reached, and the first proof of his returning steps is given in the three additional minutes that mark the increased length of the daylight on the last day of the year.

CALLING IN THE FAMILY

Lee Erwin's Brother Goes to Keep Him Company.

About the same time that Lee Erwin and his wife disappeared from Rock county, Erwin's brother also made himself scarce. This caused Henry Schmitz, a Milwaukee street harness maker, to mourn. The brother had managed to get into his possession a harness and two lap robes without returning any equivalent; and when he left he took these with him. A warrant was promptly sworn out for his arrest, but the officers, after finding where he was, concluded to let him alone for a while. They kept watch of him, hoping by that means to find out his much married relative's whereabouts Erwin finally turned up in an entirely different part of the state. As soon as he was arrested a visit was paid to Wyocena, a little station near Portage, and there the other erring member of the family was found. He had been going under the name of Bert Van Zandt and was considerably surprised when he found out what was in store for him. This morning he and his brother met in the Rock county jail and discussed the persuasive powers of Wisconsin laws.

"Christmas Greeting."

I am sure I have always thought of Christmas time, when it came around—apart from the veneration due to its sacred name and origin—if anything belonging to it can be apart from that,—as a good time, a kind, forgiving time; the only time I know of in the long calendar of the year, when men and women seem by one consent to open their shut-up hearts freely, and to think of people below them, as if they really were fellow-passengers to the grave, and not another race of creatures bound on other journeys. And, therefore, uncle, though it has never put a scrap of gold or silver in my pocket, I believe that it has done me good, and will do me good, and I say, God bless it!"—Charles Dickens.

It is in just this spirit that we should all approach the Merry Christmas time. Few of us can be so pinched or poor but that we can contribute in some small degree at least, to each others happiness Apart from any business advantage to be attained, we have always regarded Christmas as a time when we should do our best in our own capacity as public caterers to help on the general good cheer—and have always endeavored to make our place bright and attractive, and in every sense a popular holiday resort for the people.—This year is no exception to our rule, unless increased attractions render it so. We have a collection of goods suitable for holiday gifts more complete and extensive than ever before—hundreds of ornamental as well as useful articles, which it will be a pleasure to look at even if no purchases are contemplated. Our line consists of novelties in plush and brass goods, comb and brush sets, shaving sets, toilet sets, odor cases, whist cases, work boxes, card boxes, hand-painted placques, brass trays, easels, thermometers (in new designs) plush and brass framed mirrors, crumb trays, plush hand mirrors, photo and auto, albums in plush and leather, scrap books, Christmas cards, and an immense family of dolls in china, wax and bisque, from 10c to $5 00. For gifts of a more useful nature, we have immense lines of silk and linen handkerchiefs and mufflers, including many special bargains. Silk and woolen mitts, kid gloves, neckwear, jewelry, leather goods, shopping bags, knit caps, hoods scarfs, leggins, etc., in endless variety. Elegant Christmas cards will be presented and a magnificent doll will be given away—a chance with every purchase of 50 cents or upwards. A general invitation is extended—all will be made cordially welcome, whether they come to purchase or to visit.

Opening day Saturday, Dec. 18th. Wishing our patrons a merry Christmas and a happy New Year.

CONGREGATIONALISTS.

Meeting of the Beloit District Convention at Shopiere.

The Beloit district convention opened its session in our village Tuesday afternoon with the weather as unpropitious as it could be but not withstanding this, fourteen different churches of the convention were represented by their pastors and delegates, as follows: Beloit, 1st, Rev. Cyrus Hamlin, Dea. Henry Mears. Beloit 2d, Rev. H. P. Higley, W. Burton, Mrs. Jones, Miss Mary Bailey. Brodhead, Rev. F. Wrigley, Mrs. Matter. Clinton, Rev. S. D. Peet, Dea. B. B. Olds. East Troy, Rev. J. Beardsley. Elkhorn. Rev. C. H. Frazer. Delavan, Rev. J. Collie, Mr. Marones. Janesville, J. M. Whitehead Esq, Mrs. S. C. Little. Geneva, Mrs. Kull. Milton, Rev. Geo. Smith, S. D. Butts. Palmyra, Rev. O. M. Van Swearingen. Sharon, Rev. A. M. Thome, Mrs. A. M. Thome. Whitewater, Rev. F. T. Lee, Dr. Saxe. The meeting was called to order by Rev. E. T. Lee and the opening devotional exercises were led by Rev. Cyrus Hamlin. After the reading of the minutes the convention was organized by electing Rev. Cyrus Hamlin, of Beloit, moderator, and Rev. Geo. Smith, of Milton, as secretary. A committee was chosen to arrange for the next joint meeting with the Milwaukee district convention. Rev. T. C. Brayton, of the Methodist church, of this place, was invited to set as a corresponding member of the convention. An address was then given by Rev. J. Beardsley, of East Troy, on the subject: "What can we do for the evangelization of the rural districts," which was followed by the report of the committee on Fellowship meetings as the two were so closely connected. It seems that the idea of these meetings was to meet that want and after some discussion on this subject, J. M. Whitehead, Esq, of Janesville, made an address on "The usefulness in the church of societies of Christian Endeavor," which was short and to the point. It is always interesting to hear Mr. Whitehead talk for you get so much in so few words. In the evening a brief song was held led by Rev. F. T. Lee, of Whitewater, who gave an address on "The christian life, what it is, some popular misapprehensions about it, how to begin it."

Mr. Lee is an earnest speaker, and impresses his audience with this fact. His address was full of interest, and had the right ring to it. Would that every young person in Wisconsin could read this address or hear him deliver it. Wednesday morning, after a short business session, Rev. F. Wrigley, of Brodhead, gave a short talk on "How to Make the Prayer Meeting More Effective," and Rev. Y. Gardner, agent for the American Educational Society, spoke in behalf of the society which he represented. Mrs. Taintor, of Chicago, representing the American Congregational Union, spoke in behalf of this society. President Eaton, of Beloit college, made a few remarks in behalf of the college.

The Ladies' Missionary Society held their meeting Tuesday afternoon, which was in charge of Mrs. Prof. Emerson, of Beloit, and was addressed by Mrs. Eaton, president of the Women's Missionary Society, of Wisconsin, Mrs. Taintor, and others. Reports were also read from the different churches, and were said to have been quite interesting. We would suggest to the executive committee on programme that it would be a good idea to give the Ladies' Missionary Society a place on the programme, that all may have a chance to listen and not hold two meetings at once. Some want to be in the convention, and some want to be in and hear the addresses of ladies, and in that way lose both. The local attendance was not as large as it would have been under better weather facilities. It was a noticeable fact that President Eaton's mother and two of the first graduates of Beloit college, Dr. Collie and Rev. S. D. Peet, were present in the audience. Only three of the ministers who were in the Beloit convention when it last met here some ten years ago are now members of the convention—Rev. J. Collie, Rev. J. Beardsley and Rev. H. P. Bigley. How many changes will the next ten years bring? Will any of these faces which are so familiar and whom we love to meet be among us then? God grant that it may be His will to spare them for many years of useful life to come.

Time Table For the Cut Off.

The new time cards for the Evansville cut off have been received in this city, the new order to take effect on Sunday. The St. Paul express going south will leave this city for Chicago at 3:20 a. m., and the St. Paul express going north leaves this city at 2 a. m. The new order also gives us a through freight from Belvidere to Milwaukee, passing this city at six o'clock in the morning, connecting with the passenger train for Milwaukee at Jefferson Junction.

If The Sufferers From Consumption.

Scrofula, and general debility, will try Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites, they will find immediate relief and a permanent benefit. Dr. H. V. Mott, Brentwood, Cal., writes: "I have used Scott's Emulsion with great advantage in cases of Phthisis, scrofula and wasting diseases generally. It is very palatable."

The Weather.

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer indicated 13 degrees above zero. Light snow with east wind. At one o'clock p. m. the register was 32 degrees above zero. Light snow with northeast wind. For the corresponding hours one year ago the register was 18 and 30 degrees above zero.

We should economize at all times, but more especially when times are close. Observe the purchases of your thrifty neighbors. More substantial benefits can be obtained from a fifty cent bottle of Dr. Biglow's Cough Cure than a dollar bottle of any other cough remedy. It is a prompt, safe and pleasant cure for all throat and lung troubles. Sold by Prentice & Evenson.

Auction.

BELOIT COLLEGE NOTES.

College Fraternities—A Skeeing Club—"Riding the Goat."—A New Dress for the Round Table.

One of the most pleasant features of college days—at least college days at Beloit—is the fraternity life. Fraternities are large secret organizations, with chapters at different institutions of learning all over the country, in some respects not unlike the Masons. The aim of fraternity life is to make up for whatever comforts or social pleasures the student must forego through his absence from home.

"Skeeing," the Norwegian sport that combines skating and coasting, has been introduced among the students. The "skees" are narrow boards nearly six feet long and curled at the ends. They are worn as skates and are used in sliding down hill over the snow crust. A skeeing club has just been organized.

The Beloit College Prohibition club are considering whether to send one of their number as a delegate to the Inter-collegiate Prohibition convention, which is to be held at Cleveland, Ohio, beginning January 4th.

The Alumni banquet will take place next Friday evening at the Union League club, Chicago. Several of the faculty and the Glee Club will represent the college.

Rev. C. H. Richards, D. D, of Madison, a graduate of Beloit, gave a very interesting lecture in the chapel, Friday afternoon, in place of the usual recitation. His theme was "The Educational Influence of Young men on their Fellow Students", which, he said, did more towards educating a man than either college or faculty. It was an informal talk rather than a lecture, and took very well with the students.

The Round Table board are thinking of putting the paper into a new dress. A heavy red cover will be its most notable characteristic, but this cannot be done unless more advertisements are obtained.

The classical freshmen expect to give a "spread" to the philosophical division of their class next Saturday evening at North college.

The academy class in anatomy spent last Saturday afternoon very pleasantly, in dissecting a pair of cats.

Three college lads "rode the goat" last week at two of the fraternity halls.

Mrs. Eaton, wife of the president, gives an informal reception to the college students Monday evening, from 7:30 till 10 o'clock.

Have found Dr. Seth Arnold's Cough Killer the best medicine for a cough I ever tried and have also recommended it to others who were much pleased with the effect, indeed it cured my little boy's cough when the prescription of an excellent physician had no effect, Mrs. S. B. Holmes, Moorehead, Minn., Jan. 14, 1886
